

GAZETTE OBSERVATIONS

Look to your insurance.
Trinidad is having a revival.
The New York Clothing House sports a new sign.
No escaped prisoners have yet been heard from.
It is reported that "Brick" Pomeroy is dying in Denver.
The hotel at Santa Fe Springs is nearing completion.
Fires are started often by accident than by incendiaries.
Another snow storm is brewing, a circle around the moon.
Mrs. A. E. Summerfield is now keeping books for Roberts & Wheelock.
The Santa Fe officers are endeavoring to put a stop to the carrying of arms.
Mendenhall, Hunter & Co. yesterday sold a fine buggy house to Mr. Hernandez.
The new arch for Knauer's new building was hauled to the plaza yesterday afternoon.
Forty-five bulls have been secured for the Feast of Guadalupe at Paso del Norte.
C. M. Chase, of the Vermont Union, purchased a $1,300 lot in Albuquerque last week.
Foster's boarding house on Grand Avenue, near the Summer House, is nearly completed.
A large chunk of coal, weighing a ton or less, in front of the National Hotel, makes a good sign.
The Harvey hunting party from Chicago passed south on Sunday's train without stopping off.
A mining company is to be formed in Albuquerque for the purpose of working the foot-hills in that vicinity.
J. Kirkpatrick is building a shop and residence east of the bridge next door to the second hand store.
Albuquerque is endeavoring to form a stock company for the purpose of building a hotel and opera house.
Attention is called to the committee on Christmas tree to be given at the M. E. church on the evening of the 24th.
Oliver Newell has sold out his interest in the Raton (Herald) to E. A. Lamm, who will continue as publisher.
Captain Spradling will soon sever his connection with the Rio Grande Republic to engage in other business.
Gloria now boasts a barbershop, also a shoe shop. This town is now up in the world—about nine thousand feet at least.
On the 10th of this month a wool growers meeting will be held at Larned, Kansas, for the purpose of forming an association.
Christmas and New Year's balls and entertainments are being talked up. Preparations should commence immediately if they are to be made a success.
Mr. Strasser will leave for White Oaks today with fifteen passengers. Dr. Lane's family is among the number. White Oaks is rapidly increasing in population.
Governor Sheldon will go down to Dona Ana and Grant counties this week to make a personal investigation as to the presence of cattle thieves in those counties.
Mr. T. W. Garrard is now dropping his large herd of sheep down off the mesa to a warmer climate. The approach of winter in the higher altitudes makes this necessary.
Payne & Barrett will soon ship A. O. Robbins at Santa Fe a magnificent gold watch. It is one of the finest made by the American Waltham Manufacturing Company and cost the handsome little sum of $100.
Mr. J. R. Armijo of Bernalillo has reduced his flock of sheep to about sixteen thousand. These he is grading up with fine bucks brought from New York. Mr. Armijo believes that quality is better than quantity.
Company E, Fourth Cavalry, First Lieutenant Charles A. P. Hatfield commanding, stopped over Sunday evening with their special train and went on yesterday noon. They will stop at Fort Bayard.
The latest number of the New York News Letter, published by the New York Life Insurance Company, has a most excellent engraving of our noble Garfield. Copies may be procured at Mills & Hadley's office.
Bell & Co., the plaza grocers and bakers, are unsurpassed in enterprise. Yesterday they received by express from California one hundred and fifty boxes of choice apples, bellflowers and peardains.
J. W. Foster & Co., of the California Meat Market, two doors south of the Adams Express office, keep constantly on hand the fattest and best beef, pork, mutton, etc., to be found in the market. Also all kinds of sausage. They make a specialty of retail trade.
Moses Wangli, who came out with friends from St. Louis seven months ago, in hopes of benefiting his deep-seated consumption, died Sunday evening. He was buried by his friends yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Old Fellows cemetery. Rev. J. E. Gilmour conducting the services.
Mrs. S. B. Davis started Sunday for the East on a personal tour for the Plaza Hotel. She will investigate the furnishing houses of St. Louis, Chicago and elsewhere, and purchase the goods wherever she can do so to the best advantage. The contractors have agreed to have their work all finished by the first of the year and Mrs. Davis intends to have all the necessary furnishings here by that time.

New Mexican climate will not benefit consumptives who are in an advanced stage of the disease. For those who come in time there is no more certain cure.
The military company which has been organized at Albuquerque is known as company B, second regiment of militia. The officers are John Barndale, captain; W. S. Sanguinette, first lieutenant; and Tom F. Phelan, second lieutenant. They will be furnished with forty of Sharp's rifles.
The First National Bank of Albuquerque was organized Saturday afternoon with an authorized capital of $200,000. The officers are Mariano Otero, president; Nicholas T. Armijo, vice-president; and Daniel Gray, cashier. The bank will commence operation in thirty days.
Mrs. M. A. Maxwell has entirely refitted the old Petroleum House and put it in splendid shape. It will hereafter be known as the American House. The table is supplied with everything the market affords and the rooms are clean and the beds the best in the city. It is convenient to the depot and an excellent place at which to stop.
John Sullivan, charged with the robbery of two Colt's revolvers and $45 in money from Tomlin & Stockwell's saloon on Railroad Avenue, was up before Judge Steele yesterday, and in default of $500 bail, remanded to the county jail to await the March term of court. One revolver and $12.50 of the money was found on his person when arrested.
J. R. Fleck, employed by the Hot Springs Company, in the building of the reservoir, had a rumpus Sunday evening with a colored man employed by Lantry & Burr, contractors. The dackey got much the worst of it, being stabbed with a pocket-knife in six or seven places. Fleck claims that the negro first attacked him with an ax, and that he acted in self defense.
Mr. A. F. Burnham, an excellent photographer from Fairbank, Minn., arrived in the city a few days ago and has associated himself with J. N. Furlong, in the photograph gallery over the post-office. Mr. Furlong has not had the time to attend personally to the business, but with Mr. Burnham's assistance the gallery will be ready for customers at any time.
The Wall Street Mining Company, in which Col. Rogers, Col. Gillette, H. B. Deunham, E. F. Grafton, Story B. Ladd, and others are interested, has filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory a certified copy of the articles of incorporation. The capital stock is $2,000,000, full paid and non-assessable. The principal place of business is Denver, but the company proposes to operate in New Mexico.
At the meeting of the teachers and officers of the M. E. Sunday school last Sabbath it was unanimously voted to give the children of the school a Christmas tree. The following committees were appointed:

Committee of arrangements: Superintendent Fleming, Rev. Brown, Mr. Henry, W. G. Koogler.
This committee will have charge of the literary and musical programme, which will be rendered on Christmas eve, December 24, 1933.
These committees are advised to meet and organize as soon as convenient. Friends and parents interested in the school, are cordially requested to send their presents in good season, and as far as possible, to meet with the school at 3 p. m. each Lord's day.
S. J. FLEMING, Superintendent.
RAILWAY REVIEW
Trains yesterday on time.
Albuquerque is to have a new freight depot.
Freight traffic over the road is very heavy.
Yesterday's Pacific express eight hours late.
Ex-Governor Evans is in New York working for the interest of the Denver & New Orleans railway.
P. C. Doestader, of Hovey's office, got off for Topeka yesterday. It's resting lay-off for two or three weeks.
W. C. Codman, formerly an employee in Chief Engineer Robinson's office here, arrived yesterday from Boston, and will stay three weeks or so.
The Pueblo Chief (Herald) does not believe there is any truth in the rumor that W. B. Foster will resign his position with the Santa Fe to accept a position with the Denver & Rio Grande.
It is rumored that J. F. Goddard, general freight agent of the A. T. & S. F., will soon be made traffic manager. L. P. Parker will probably be appointed general freight agent in his stead.
Commissioners Loring, of the Agricultural Department at Washington, will meet Col. A. S. Johnson at Atlanta and endeavor to have the magnificent A. T. & S. F. display go to Washington as a part of the permanent U. S. agricultural exhibit.
Thomas Nickerson, of Boston, and party, passed through in President Strong's private car yesterday, on their return from El Paso. Nickerson is president of the Mexican Central and has been down to see how she prospers.

J. A. Cole of Chicago is stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel.
Wm. Tipton of Tiptonsville was in town on business yesterday.
Greenville Cunningham's family will arrive in Las Vegas soon.
Andres Dold, returned Sunday from an extended New York visit.
James Griffin and wife of White Oaks are guests at the Summer House.
Miss Annie Horn, St. Louis, arrived yesterday, and is at the Summer.
Edwin C. Kohl, of Dnn's commercial agency, registered at the St. Nicholas Sunday.
Chief Justice L. Bradford Prince and bride will arrive in New Mexico in a few days.
M. L. Johnson and wife arrived yesterday from Troy, New York, and are stopping at the Summer.
Arthur Conger, who has been in the post trading business at Fort Union for the past four or five years, is in the city.
Jefferson Reynolds yesterday took the train for the south. He will visit Albuquerque and El Paso, and be gone about a week.
Tom Hughes of the Albuquerque Journal went north Sunday, bound for Topeka, where he goes on a short business trip.
Mrs. M. Frank of Baltimore who is in the Territory on a visit to her son, Willie Frank, went south on the train yesterday to Albuquerque.
J. Frank Wilder, of the large shirt manufacturing firm of Wilder Bros., Lawrence, Kansas, is in the city, stopping at the Summer.
Al. Rossier, who has been with Gross Blackwell & Co., for several years, started yesterday for a month's visit to his home in Centralia, Wisconsin.
Hymen Friedman will go to Leavenworth today on a visit and to bring back with him his sister Miss Emma Friedman who has been in Leavenworth some months.
Mrs. W. M. Morley, wife of the Chief Engineer of the Sonora Railroad, was a passenger on the south bound train Sunday en route to Tucson Arizona to meet her husband.
Carl Wildenstein came over from Watrous yesterday. He reports trade excellent and the town growing. There seems to be a general tide of prosperity sweeping over the territory this year.
Mrs. Desmarais and Mrs. C. Blanchard returned Sunday from a week's visit to Mora and Rincon Teolote. They took Miguel Desmarais with them to school at St. Mary's college in Mora.
N. L. Rosenthal returned Sunday from his four month's European journey. At Berlin he visited his mother, eighty-six years old. His daughter Fannie accompanied him from Chicago, where she has been visiting.
Chas. Goin came in from Lockhart & Co.'s mills near Hermits Peak yesterday. He reports the mills running at full speed and that a vast amount of lumber is being cut. Mr. Goin will leave, in a week or so, for an extended trip to his home in Canada.
B. Stoops, the butcher king of New Mexico returned yesterday from a business trip to Santa Fe and Socorro. He says the flourishing young city of the valley is booming and that the future prospects for trade are excellent. He was well pleased with the mines in the vicinity a number of which he went through.
Mr. J. T. Leer one of the owners of the ten stamp mill at White Oaks, arrived yesterday. He reports mining brisk and the mill running at full speed until the late cool weather in that vicinity. The best runs made were from ore taken from the Little Mae mine. This ore yielded rich returns for ore taken at hap-hazard. Ore taken from the Hindoo mine gave fair returns for top rock. Mr. Leer will remain in town several days.
Louis Sulzbacher returned Sunday evening from his New York business trip, looking as well or better than ever. In answer to a reporter's inquiries he stated that his trip had been a very pleasant and successful one. Eastern capitalists, he says, are preparing to invest largely in New Mexican mining property. Whenever our Territory is spoken of, Las Vegas is regarded as the leading city.
We call attention to the new ad. of Baum & Co., dealers in staple and fancy groceries, vegetables, etc., two doors south of the Adams Express office. They have a choice line of fresh groceries.
A half-brother of "Billy the Kid" is living in Trinidad. He is a gambler by profession and handles the card pack as nimbly as Billy did his gun. He has for some time past been a resident of Amosca, Colorado, but on account of some difficulty there, went to Trinidad. He is twenty-six years old, and although not what would be called a desperate character, is a hard one. It is said that he has a desire for the life of but one man, our sheriff, Pat Garrett, who killed "the Kid."
Lost—The photograph of a lady. The photograph was a large one, about ten inches long by six inches wide. A reward of ten dollars will be paid the finder by leaving the photograph at this office. 12-6-2w
